Gospel Reading

Sunday, October 18, 2026
Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees send their disciples to test Jesus with a question about taxes.

In today's Gospel Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem continue their tense exchange of questions and challenges. At this point the disciples of the Pharisees, together with the Herodians, try to entrap Jesus by their question about the payment of taxes.

Matthew sets up an unusual partnership between the Pharisees and the Herodians. The Herodians were supporters of Herod Antipas, a Jewish political leader who collaborated with the Romans. Such collaboration would have required a compromised observance of the Mosaic Law. The Pharisees, on the other hand, taught scrupulous observance of the Mosaic Law and opposed Roman occupation. Herodians favored the payment of taxes; the Pharisees opposed it. The Herodians and the Pharisees approach Jesus, asking that he take sides in their dispute. If Jesus answers with the Pharisees, he shows himself to be an enemy of Rome. If he answers with the Herodians, he offends popular Jewish religious sensibilities.

Jesus' response to this attempt to trap him exposes the guile of his questioners. From his first words to them, Jesus shows that he is very much aware of what they are trying to do. He asks to see a Roman coin, which is readily provided to him. It may have come from the hand of a Herodian, but the Pharisees show themselves to be quite willing to accept this compromise. Jesus has already exposed the Pharisees as hypocrites.

Jesus takes his response one step further. He asks that his questioners examine the coin. Agreeing that it is Caesar's image on the coin, Jesus tells them that it must belong to Caesar. Avoiding the question of lawfulness altogether, Jesus answers their question with simple logic. Then, going further still, Jesus tells them that their obligation is to pay to God that which belongs to God.

Jesus' response to the Herodians and Pharisees suggests the ethic that Christians ought to adopt. It reminds us of the importance of keeping things in their proper perspective. Do we attach ourselves to worldly things at the expense of the love and honor that we owe to God?

From St. Faustina's Diary

Fill Me Lord

Then I heard the following words spoken thus: I want you to be My spouse. Fear pierced my soul, but I calmly continued to reflect on what sort of an espousal this could be. However, each time fear would invade my soul, a power from on high would give it peace (Diary, 912).

The Lord said to me, I want to give Myself to souls and to fill them with My love, but few there are who want to accept all the graces My love has intended for them. My grace is not lost; if the soul for whom it was intended does not accept it, another soul takes it (Diary, 1017).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, You want to give Yourself to souls and fill them with Your love and mercy. But so many souls refuse Your love. Change my heart, Lord, to desire You alone. And fill me with Your love and mercy.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Faithful cannot accept oppression, injustice, pope says

VATICAN CITY–Christians "cannot accept the oppression of the weak and the poor, nor the unjust structures that perpetuate conditions of dependence and injustice," Pope Leo XIV said at his weekly general audience.

"The Church, therefore, 'has no fiercer desire than that in pursuit of the welfare of all she may be able to develop herself freely under any kind of government which grants recognition to the basic rights of person and family, to the demands of the common good,'" he said, quoting from the conciliar constitution, "Gaudium et Spes," as he continued his series of talks on documents from the Second Vatican Council.

BETHLEHEM WOOD CARVING

Louie with BETHLEHEM WOOD CARVING will be here Oct. 24 & 25 to sell olive wood religious items from the holy land. This helps and supports the catholic Christians so they can remain in their homes and provide for their livelihood. Your help ensures that the churches and holy sites remain places of Christian worship. Without the indigenous catholic presence in the holy land, these places would turn into museums. They are our brothers and sister in Christ. They are suffering. Living conditions in the holy land are dire as a result of the border closures that restrict freedom of movement. May we ask you again to support Louie & his mission? Louie will share more information after each mass. ALSO, you may reach Louie via his website. www.stmichaelolivewood.com.

Help the Homeless and Needy 2026-2027

Parishioners, donations are down and we need your help! For each of the last four years, we have been able to provide 100 gift bags filled with personal items to the homeless. We are in particular need of soap, rain ponchos, toothbrushes, small packs of personal wipes, chap stick, combs, deodorant, toilet paper, insect repellant, toothpaste, razors, and shampoo. Please send donated items with your children to their RE classroom or place them in Room 8 in the Church building by October 25th.
