Gospel Reading

Sunday, November 1, 2026
Matthew 5: 1-12a

Jesus teaches what it means to be happy.

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.

From St. Faustina's Diary
Mortify Your Self Will

When I left the confessional and started to recite my penance, I heard these words: I have granted the grace you asked for on behalf of that soul, but not because of the mortification you chose for yourself, but because of the act of complete obedience to My representative did I grant grace to that soul for whom you interceded and begged mercy. Know that when you mortify your own self-will, then Mine reigns within you (Diary, 365).

Prayer Response

Thank You, Lord Jesus, that You inspired Fr. Andrasz to have Sr. Faustina underline Your words in her Diary. Underlining them, now printing them in boldface, made it easier to gather Your words in this daily devotional — all for our spiritual benefit.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Safety First at SVdP

This was the scene in the emergency lane beside the church during the 9:00 a.m. Holy Mass at SVdP on Sunday, October 11. In case of an emergency, neither police cars, ambulances, nor fire engines could reach the back parking lot. The overflow parking area is available in the front and there are spaces behind the Our Lady of Guadalupe Religious Education Center. If all spots are filled, the SVdP Thrift Store parking lot across the street is available. For safety purposes and to prevent damage to vehicles, everyone should park only in designated parking spots.

Sponsors Needed for OCIA

This year we are blessed with a large OCIA class and will be welcoming many new members into our church this coming Easter. We are in need of faithful Catholics who are willing to serve as sponsors for our adult OCIA members. If you are a practicing Catholic already confirmed in the faith, and if married, you were married within the Catholic Church, and are willing to assist another on their faith journey, please contact:
Mary Ware at mware@svdpatl.com or
Bob Babecka at bob@ymicatholic.com.

Preparation for the Consecration to the Holy Family

Dearest Heavenly Father, Father of mercies, your Only Begotten Son, as He hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, His Mother, to be our Mother also. Grant, we pray, that with her loving help, and that of her most chaste spouse, Saint Joseph, we may humbly and prayerfully prepare ourselves as the parish of St. Vincent de Paul, for consecration to the Holy Family. We humbly make our prayer in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Let us prepare for the Parish's Consecration to the Holy Family. This will take place in the following way:

1. Pray at least one decade of the Rosary (one Our Father, ten Hail Mary's and the Glory Be) and the Consecration Prayer (listed above) daily.
2. Attend Holy Mass every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation.
3. Go to Confession.
4. Adore our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join in the novena of prayers for the renewal of the parish consecration to the Holy Family.

The novena of prayers for the renewal of the parish consecration will begin the weekend of November 1. The consecration will take place on the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, December 26 & 27, during all Holy Masses.
