Gospel Reading

Sunday, October 11, 2026
Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a wedding feast.

In the parable of the wedding feast, Jesus offers an image of the kingdom of heaven using the symbol of a wedding banquet. In today's first reading from the prophet Isaiah and in today's psalm, the Lord's goodness is evident in the symbol of a feast of good food and wine. Jesus' listeners would have been familiar with the image of a wedding feast as a symbol for God's salvation. They would consider themselves to be the invited guests. Keeping this in mind helps us to understand the critique Jesus makes with this parable. The context for this parable is the growing tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders in Jerusalem. This has been the case for the past two Sundays and will continue to be true for the next several weeks.

The parable Jesus tells is straightforward. The king dispatches his servants to invite the guests to the wedding feast that he is planning for his son. The listeners would have been surprised to learn that the first guests refused the invitation. Who would refuse the king's invitation? A second dispatch of servants follows. Again to the listeners' great surprise, some guests ignore the invitation. Some of the invited guests even go so far as to mistreat and kill the servants. The king invokes his retribution against these murderers by destroying them and burning their city.

We might stop here for a moment. Why would some guests kill the servants sent to invite them to the king's wedding feast? It might be possible that the king was a tyrant, evidenced by the destruction of the city of those who refused his invitation. But if we follow this idea, then the allegory seems to be about something other than the kingdom of heaven. It is more likely that the destruction of the city would have been a powerful image corresponding to the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in A.D. 70, which would have been an important event for Matthew's audience.

With the invited guests now deemed unworthy to attend the king's wedding feast, the servants are sent to invite whomever they can find. The guests arrive, but it appears that accepting the king's invitation brings certain obligations. The guest who failed to dress in the appropriate wedding attire is cast out of the feast. We are reminded that while many are invited to the kingdom of heaven, not all are able to meet its requirements. God invites us to his feast, giving us his salvation. Yet he asks us to repent for our sins. Jesus' message in the parable cautions against exclusive beliefs about the kingdom of heaven. The parable also teaches about humility. Those who assume that they are the invited guests may find that they have refused the invitation, and so others are invited in their place. To accept the invitation is also to accept its obligations. God wants our full conversion in complete acceptance of his mercy.

The Discalced Carmelite Saints Here Today

Saint Teresa of Jesus
1515 - 1582-- Feast Day Oct 15th

"...for detachment, if it is practiced with perfection, includes everything. I say it includes everything because if we embrace the Creator and care not at all for the whole of creation, His Majesty will infuse the virtues. Doing little by little what we can, we will have hardly anything else to fight against; it is the Lord who in our defense takes up the battle against the demons and against the world."

From St. Faustina's Diary

The Call To Intimacy

I heard these words in my soul: You are My spouse forever; your chastity should be greater than that of the angels, for I call no angel to such intimacy as I do you. The smallest act of My spouse is of infinite value. A pure soul has inconceivable power before God (Diary, 534).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, thank You for the call to intimacy with You in a chaste union of love. Purify my heart, O Lord! May I make use of Your merciful love for me to intercede for the salvation of souls.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

BETHLEHEM WOOD CARVING

Louie with BETHLEHEM WOOD CARVING will be here Oct. 24 & 25 to sell olive wood religious items from the holy land to help and support the catholic Christians so they can remain in their homes and provide for their livelihood. Your help ensures that the churches and holy sites remain places of Christian worship. Without the indigenous catholic presence in the holy land, these places would turn into museums. They are our brothers and sister in Christ. They are suffering. Living conditions in the holy land are dire as a result of the border closures that restrict freedom of movement. May we ask you again to support Louie & his mission? Louie will share more information after each mass. ALSO, you may reach Louie via his website. www.stmichaelolivewood.com

Help the Homeless and Needy 2026-2027

Parishioners, donations are down and we need your help! For each of the last four years, we have been able to provide 100 gift bags filled with personal items to the homeless. We are in particular need of soap, rain ponchos, toothbrushes, small packs of personal wipes, chap stick, combs, deodorant, toilet paper, insect repellant, toothpaste, razors, and shampoo.
