Gospel Reading

Sunday, October 25, 2026
Matthew 22:34-40

The Pharisees continue to test Jesus with a question about the greatest commandment.

This week's Gospel follows close behind the Gospel read last Sunday. It is the last of three questions put to Jesus by Jewish religious leaders who are trying to trick him into saying something that might get him arrested. This reminds us that the context for today's reading is the mounting tension between Jesus and the religious leaders in Jerusalem.

The Herodians and the Pharisees asked the first question, which was about taxes. The Sadducees asked the second question, which was about the Resurrection. The third question, considered in today's Gospel, is asked by a Pharisee who asks Jesus about the greatest of the commandments.

The question requires Jesus to interpret the Law of Moses. The Mosaic Law consists of the Ten Commandments and many additional rules, numbering over six hundred. Adherence to the Mosaic Law, for a devout Jew, is an expression of faithfulness to God's covenant with Israel. The ranking of the Commandments was regularly debated among the teachers of the Law.

Jesus answers the Pharisees' question with a two-fold summary. Jesus says that all of the commandments can be summarized in two commandments: love God and love your neighbor. Both of these were central elements of the religious tradition Jesus learned from his Jewish community. Indeed these continue to be central aspects of contemporary Jewish religious understanding. Jesus' response to his questioners proposed an integral connection between these two aspects of the Jewish Law. Love of God finds its expression in our love for our neighbor.

From St. Faustina's Diary
Underlining Jesus' Words

When I set to work at underlining the Lord's words and thus was going through everything in sequence, I reached the page where I had marked down Father Andrasz's advice and directions. I did not know what to do, to underline or not to underline, and then I heard these words in my soul: Underline, because these words are Mine; I have borrowed the lips of the friend of My Heart in order to speak to you and reassure you. You are to observe these directions until your death. It would not please Me at all if you were to disobey these directions. Know that it is I who have placed him between Myself and your soul. I am doing this to set you at peace and so that you may not err (Diary, 967).

Prayer Response

Thank You, Lord Jesus, that You inspired Fr. Andrasz to have Sr. Faustina underline Your words in her Diary. Underlining them, now printing them in boldface, made it easier to gather Your words in this daily devotional — all for our spiritual benefit.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Safety First at SVdP

This was the scene in the emergency lane beside the church during the 9:00 a.m. Holy Mass at SVdP on Sunday, October 11. In case of an emergency, neither police cars, ambulances, nor fire engines could reach the back parking lot. The overflow parking area is available in the front and there are spaces behind the Our Lady of Guadalupe Religious Education Center. If all spots are filled, the SVdP Thrift Store parking lot across the street is available. For safety purposes and to prevent damage to vehicles, everyone should park only in designated parking spots.

Hats For the Homeless

We have a critical need for knitters/loomers to make hats for the homeless in our area. We will supply the yarn, but need the laborers. If you want to learn how to loom, we will teach you in less than half an hour. If you are interested and would like to help, please contact Chris DePerno at ckdeperno@hotmail.com.
Please place looming in the subject line.

Help the Homeless and Needy 2026-2027

Parishioners, donations are down and we need your help! For each of the last four years, we have been able to provide 100 gift bags filled with personal items to the homeless. The number of those in need is increasing. As a result, we would like to raise the number of gift bags to give away this year to 125. We cannot do this without you. We are in particular need of soap, rain ponchos, toothbrushes, small packs of personal wipes, chap stick, combs, deodorant, toilet paper, insect repellant, toothpaste, razors, and shampoo. Please send donated items with your children to their RE classroom or place them in Room 8 in the Church building by November 1st.

Thank you for helping those in need.
