Gospel Reading

Sunday, September 27, 2026

Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus poses a question to the chief priests and elders on the meaning of obedience.

The context for today's Gospel is the mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders. Jesus has entered Jerusalem and overturned the money changers' tables in the Temple. Jesus has caught the attention of the religious authorities; the chief priests and elders question Jesus about the source of his authority. Jesus refuses to name for these religious leaders the source of his authority. Instead, he questions the priests and elders through the parable we hear in today's Gospel. The answer given by the religious leaders is correct, but it convicts them for their failure to heed the call of John the Baptist and for their inability to recognize the Kingdom of God.

The situation Jesus poses is rather straightforward. Given the same task by their father, one son asserts his disobedience in words, but then obeys in his actions; the second son obeys with his words, but disobeys in his actions. The question that Jesus poses is pointed and direct: Which son did what the father wanted? All would agree that "actions speak louder than words" and that even if his words were disobedient, the son who did the work as ordered did the father's will.

Jesus' conclusion is also direct. The chief priests and elders, the ones who speak most often about God, did not act accordingly. They did not respond to the message of repentance announced by John the Baptist with a change of heart. Instead, John's message was heeded by those one would not expect to repent—tax collectors, prostitutes, and other sinners. Because of their actions, these sinners will enter the Kingdom of God ahead of the religious leaders.

Jesus could ask us the same question. Do our words indicate our obedience to God? If not our words, do our actions? God desires a full conversion of heart, that our actions (and our words as well) will give evidence of our love for God.

From St. Faustina's Diary Give Away Everything

Give away everything at the first sign of a demand, even if they were the most necessary things. Do not ask for anything without consulting Me. Allow them to take away even what is due you — respect, your good name — let your spirit rise above all that. And so, set free from everything, rest close to My Heart, not allowing your peace to be disturbed by anything. My pupil, consider the words which I have spoken to you (Diary, 1685).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, what a marvelous freedom You taught St. Faustina: to give away everything at the first sign of a demand. Teach me what I need to do to have such a free spirit.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Help the Homeless and Needy 2026-2027 Kickoff

Parishioners, as we begin year five of this project at SVdP, we need your help to make this year the best ever! For each of the last four years, we have been able to provide 100 gift bags filled with personal items to the homeless. The number of those in need is increasing. As a result, we would like to raise the number of gift bags to give away this year to 125. We cannot do this without your help. Even with the grant, there are many more items needed than we can purchase. Please help us reach our goal by donating soap, rain ponchos, toothbrushes, small packs of personal wipes, chap stick, combs, deodorant, toilet paper, insect repellent, toothpaste, and shampoo. Please send donated items with your children to their RE classroom or place them in Room 8 in the Church building by October 11th. Thank you for helping those in need.
