Prayers for Elections (with Bible Verses)

Amos 5:24

“Let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.”

God desires justice that flows steadily, not sporadically. We pray for righteous systems and just outcomes.

Prayer:

“Righteous God, let justice roll in our land. Correct what is crooked and establish what is right. May the election process be fair, accessible, and just, especially for the vulnerable and voiceless. Amen.”

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus is an international order of Catholic men called to lead with faith, protect our families, serve others and defend values in a busy, changing world. You will find Knights of Columbus brings Catholic men together in a powerful way. If you would like to join today, simply visit: KofC.org/joinus and enter our council #12287.

Change to the Children's Nursery

There have been changes made to the Children's Nursery Room. We have added additional adult sized chairs and arranged them in front of the tv monitor so that parents can attend Holy Mass reverently, while in there with their children. We hope this will encourage use of the room as a place to help children learn how to attend the Holy Mass.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 18:21-35

Jesus teaches that we must forgive one another as God has forgiven us.

In today's reading Peter asks Jesus how many times one ought to extend forgiveness to another. Peter proposes a reasonable number of times, perhaps seven. Jesus replies by extending Peter's proposal by an enormous amount; not just seven times should one forgive, but 77 times. The parable of the unforgiving servant is Jesus' elaboration of his initial reply to Peter. Through the parable we come to understand the depths of God's mercy toward us and the results of our acceptance of God's forgiveness.

The king in the parable decides to settle accounts with his servants. We are told that one servant in particular owes the king an enormous sum of money. Despite the promise of the servant, it is unlikely that he would ever be able to repay the debt that he owes. The king is moved by the humility of the pleading servant and mercifully forgives the debt. Rather than displaying gratitude for this forgiveness, the servant confronts a fellow servant who owes him a small debt—a pittance when compared with the amount that was owed to the king. The unmerciful servant refuses the pleas of his fellow servant and sends the servant to prison.

A few other servants tell the merciful king about the actions of the unforgiving servant. The king punishes the servant because he refused to show the kind of mercy he had himself received from the king. Jesus concludes by indicating that this is how it will be with God and those who refuse to forgive one another.

There is a temptation to quantify forgiveness as Peter tried to do, but Jesus' point is that forgiveness is not about quantity—the number of times we extend forgiveness to another. In the parable the king's forgiveness is like God's forgiveness, and it transforms us, helping us to be as forgiving as God. The lesson is clear: If we hoard God's mercy while showing no mercy to others, we risk forfeiting the effects of God's mercy in our lives.

From St. Faustina's Diary

This Small Imperfection

It so happened that I fell again into a certain error, in spite of a sincere resolution not to do so — even though the lapse was a minor imperfection and rather involuntary — and at this I felt such acute pain in my soul that I interrupted my work and went to the chapel for a while. Falling at the feet of Jesus, with love and a great deal of pain, I apologized to the Lord, all the more ashamed because of the fact that in my conversation with Him after Holy Communion this very morning I had promised to be faithful to Him. Then I heard these words: If it hadn't been for this small imperfection, you wouldn't have come to Me (Diary, 1293).

Prayer Response

Help me, Lord Jesus, to humble myself in Confession and ask for forgiveness, even for imperfections that they, too, may vanish. May I bring even the smallest imperfection to You.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.

Help the Homeless and Needy 2026-2027 Kickoff

Parishioners, as we begin year five of this project at SVdP, we need your help to make this year the best ever! For each of the last four years, we have been able to provide 100 gift bags filled with personal items to the homeless. The number of those in need is increasing. As a result, we would like to raise the number of gift bags to give away this year to 125. We cannot do this without your help. Even with the grant, there are many more items needed than we can purchase. Please help us reach our goal by donating soap, rain ponchos, toothbrushes, small packs of personal wipes, chap stick, combs, deodorant, toilet paper, insect repellent, toothpaste, and shampoo. Please send donated items with your children to their RE classroom or place them in Room 8 in the Church building by October 4th. Thank you for helping those in need.
