Prayers for Elections (with Bible Verses)

Philippians 4:6–7

“Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer... with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.”

Anxiety often rises during elections. God invites us to replace worry with prayerful, thankful trust that welcomes His peace.

Prayer:

“Prince of Peace, calm anxious hearts. We bring our election concerns to You with gratitude. Guard minds and homes with Your peace. Help us rest in Your sovereignty and act in Your love. Keep us steady in Christ. Amen.”

Gospel Reading Sunday, July 19, 2026

Matthew 13:24-43

Jesus offers parables about the Kingdom of Heaven and explains them to his disciples.

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why he speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday.

All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too God will bring his Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too God will bring about the expansion of his Kingdom. In each case the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom.

Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the parable of the sower we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the "weeds" prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.

A Thank You From VBS

Heartfelt thanks to all those who helped in any way with the success of this year's Vacation Bible School. It was a joy to see the smiles on all the children's faces and good to see our numbers increasing. We had an excellent crew of volunteers that made all run smoothly. Special thanks to Apostle Paul (Skip Heinrich) and Brutus (Joe Lee), to our session leaders, our family group leaders, and the many teens and adults who were so cheerful all week. We all had fun learning about the early Christians in Rome and how it is good to start and end our day with PRAISE to God.

From St. Faustina's Diary Teach Us Silence of Heart

Today, I was talking with the Lord, and He said to me, There are souls with whom I can do nothing. They are souls that are continuously observing others, but know nothing of what is going on within their own selves. They talk about others continually, even during times of grand silence, which is reserved for speaking only with Me. Poor souls, they do not hear My words; their interior remains empty. They do not look for Me within their own hearts, but in idle talk, where I am never to be found (Diary, 1717).

Prayer Response

Lord Jesus, help us to look for You within our hearts. Teach us how to be silent and listen for Your voice. May we find You, and live in Your presence with awesome awareness and loving attentiveness.

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type.
